

Search and Rescue Training

An incredible, diverse, motivated group of people completed their first stage in becoming Search and Rescue Technicians. Many thanks to Guadalajara Red Cross and the Search and Rescue Instructors. I would be remiss in not recognizing the support of the Chapala Red Cross in making this training possible. Among the trainees was one physician and many technicians from the Chapala Red Cross.

